

Team PHOENIX Homework

Date - Tuesday, November 22, 2016

ABSENTEES need to check mailbox for all handouts and be sure that they are glued into the appropriate notebook to be prepared for returning to classes.

- The PSAT registration and $10.00 fee is due to Mrs. Cripps by December 1 if you are interested in applying for the Academic Challenge Program for grade 8. This is your only opportunity to apply to AC. The PSAT is not a requirement, but will earn you “bonus points” in the application process.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL OF OUR PHOENIX FAMILIES!

Writing - Coffee House Tuesday! Students wrote creatively in their junk drawers and shared. We also discussed possible holiday projects.

Junk Drawer - 1 - For what, or whom, are you most thankful and why?

Junk drawer - 2 - Free.

HW - Happy Thanksgiving! Look at possible charities for holiday project.

Heifer.org, softlandingmissoula.org

Any junk drawer entries not completed to date should be completed during the Thanksgiving break.

Reading - Reading Check on Part II to 9/20 in Tangerine (Make up ASAP); discussed book, worked on p. 94-95: inaccurate and accurate facts in Tangerine

HW - read up to Tuesday, 9/26 in Tangerine, finish p. 94-95 if not finished in class; log due on Monday, 2nd one due on Friday

Math - Students worked in cooperative pairs to solve a variety of math problems using the Scholastic Math Magazine. If you need more copies of items for your notebook - I will have them ready when we return after the holiday.

HW: No Homework :-) Be thankful and enjoy being with your family.

Science - Today we worked on developing testable questions for the Science Fair project using the “mind map”. Some classes finished gathering information from the science wiki’s video clip on photosynthesis.

HW - No homework!! Enjoy the Thanksgiving break. NOTE: Bring a ½” or 1” 3- ring binder to class on Monday for Science Fair.

Social Studies - Today we talked about Thanksgiving traditions and the significance of the date November 22, 1963.

HW - Gobble-Gobble. Have a great Thanksgiving break!
