Team PHOENIX Homework
Date - Thursday, December 1, 2016

ABSENTEES need to check mailbox for all handouts and be sure that they are glued into the appropriate notebook to be prepared for returning to classes.

- Falling Leaves = Giving Tree items. Be sure to "take a leaf" and bring in an item to donate for the holidays.
- Don't forget to purchase your DANCE TICKETS to help support Ms. Hugues' Literary Magazine club - Tickets are $5 and available during lunch until Friday.

Writing - Students identified claims and evidence on a sample reflection. Also, students continued to practice using commas to set off introductory elements.
Comma quiz is Tuesday, December 6th.
Junk Drawer - What are you wearing (or would you wear) to Friday's dance? Why is that your choice? Explain.
HW - We need chaperones, prizes, and snacks/small waters for Friday's dance.
The students voted to have Heifer International as their charity project for the holiday season. Donations are being accepted.

Reading - returned and discussed last reading check, graded Short Answer Response in class (Victor's nickname for Paul), took reading check up to 10/3
HW - read up to 10/5 in Tangerine, finish p. 101

Math - Today we worked with writing equations from our warm up problems after solving them.

HW: ALL - be prepared for graded class-work tomorrow :-) No study evidence is needed

Science - Today students used research information to form a hypothesis, finished lab procedures and made a data table for the yeast/sugar experiment. Data collection will occur on Friday. UPCOMING: DOL Unit Test on Wednesday, December 7th. Students received a study guide.

HW - Review for Wednesday's unit test. Finish classwork if needed.

Social Studies - Today we discussed kindness and caring, read a parable, and completed a graphic organizer on the teachings of Jesus.

HW - Writing (50 words or more): Research and write about a figure from history that practiced kindness and caring towards others. Plus, review notebook for a quiz tomorrow.

Portfolio - Grade graphs should be updated and report cards filed in page protector in portfolio.
