

Team PHOENIX Homework

Date - Wednesday, December 14, 2016

ABSENTEES need to check mailbox for all handouts and be sure that they are glued into the appropriate notebook to be prepared for returning to classes.

- Don't forget your $1.00 donation to be able to wear jeans and/or a holiday sweater (no antlers nor hats) on Dec. 22 our Early Release Day.
- Interim grade reports were distributed to students today - Please bring back a SIGNED COPY to your homeroom teacher = bird bill :-)

Writing - Students challenged items on other classes' organizational checklists and final lists were evaluated. Students identified stance, claims and evidence on zeppelin essay and continued practicing with commas.

Junk Drawer - What you be doing for the holiday in fifty years?

HW - Donations are being accepted for Heifer International.

Reading - collected the BIG paper, character trait SR practice, discussed and worked on p. 109

HW - read to Thanksgiving, finish p. 109

Math - Students are continuing to work with proportional relationships in problems, tables, graphs and equations. Then working with markups and markdowns and finding % increase or % decrease.

HW: Period 1 (only) Finish page 135 PERIODS 2 + 3 - Complete 145

Periods 4+5 - Did a graded "ticket" so you don't have homework tonight. Unit Test will be early next week.

Science - Today students completed ISN pages 55-56. They played a round of "war" to review organization in organisms. Period 4: worked on page 54 in class. Next topic: Classification and Kingdoms

Science Fair: Research questions (minimum of 3) are due Thursday (Friday pd 4,5). See handout for directions

HW - Work on research questions if needed.

Social Studies - Today we discussed the research completed for homework, learned that Charlemagne used violence to spread Christianity, talked about the misconceptions regarding vikings, and completed and information gathering activity on vikings culture.

HW - Research and Answer: How did Norse (Viking) religion differ from Christianity?
50 words or more needed

Portfolio - Goals should be completed and inserted into the introductory section of your portfolio, according to your teacher's deadline.