Team PHOENIX Homework
Date - Monday, January 23, 2017

ABSENTEES need to check mailbox for all handouts and be sure that they are glued into the appropriate notebook to be prepared for returning to classes. You have one day for each day of absence plus one day to make up all work and turn in assignments. If you are out 2 days, you have 3 days to turn in work. See your teachers immediately to make up quizzes or tests.

Writing - Students took notes on Scope articles and continued practicing with commas.
Junk Drawer - Create a new list of questions.
HW - Research the answer to another junk drawer question. Write the answer in the junk drawer. Use and document at least three resources.
Comma quiz is 1/26.
Comma test is 2/2.

Reading - glued in proverbs, finished annotating King's Letter, answered SR questions and handed in, discussed log expectations
HW - log

Math - We practiced solving one and two step equations. Students must follow the format and show all steps. They must also show the "check" on lined paper.
HW -Finish both sides of the handout. P1 - all of front, first 3 on back. P2 and 4- All of front, Evens on the back, P3 and 5- All of front, ODDS on the back.

Science - Today we made a sequence strip for the "Genetics Big Picture". Students are beginning a Trait Survey. Period 4 watched the Bill Nye video: Genetics
HW - Finish Science Portfolio reflection (yeast/sugar lab) due Tuesday.
    Hypothesis/Variable/Control sheet due Tuesday for Pd 4

Science Fair: Upcoming: Materials,Procedures, Constants due 1/31. Directions will be passed out on Monday. See class web-site (Science Fair page) for resources.

Social Studies - Today students learned that jerusalem is a sacred city to Jews, Christians, and Muslims. We also touched upon the Crusades.

HW - Jerusalem is a sacred city to Jews, Christians, and Muslims. Question: What do you cherish that is sacred in your own life? Answer should be 60 words or more..

Portfolio - Students should have their portfolios ready to be graded (% grade will be on report cards).