

Team PHOENIX Homework

Date - Tuesday, January 24, 2017

ABSENTEES need to check mailbox for all handouts and be sure that they are glued into the appropriate notebook to be prepared for returning to classes. You are responsible to TURN IN all missed work one day, plus one additional day, after your absence. If you are absent 3 days, everything is due on day 4.

Reminder: Bring in your $1.00 to wear jeans and/or a football jersey on FRIDAY for Early Release. The $1.00 supports the Polar Bear Plunge/ Special Olympics :-)

Writing - Students continued taking notes on the Scope articles and submitted evidence on an exit ticket. They also continued comma practice.

Junk Drawer - Create a new list of questions (at least three).

HW - Answer another question in the junk drawer. Use and document at least sources.

Comma quiz is 1/26

Comma test is 2/2

Reading - discussed King's letter, worked on questions on p. 150, went over

HW -work on log, finish p. 150

Math - Today students practiced working with equations.

HW: ALL Classes: Showing all work on lined paper! Finish Pgs 183/184 and choose one HOT problem. Quiz on solving equations with one variable will be on Thursday. (Period 1 - Do all of 183)

Science - Today the Classification/Kingdom Quiz was returned and science portfolio reflections were collected. We began a Trait Survey of the class. Period 4 made a sequence strip for the genetics big picture. New unit is "Heredity and Genetics". Resources include textbook chapter 3 and class web-site.

HW - Finish genetics vocab on the foldable (page 70). For each "flap" define, use in a substantial sentence, picture to represent.

Science Fair: Materials, Procedures, Constants due 1/31. Directions were passed out on Tuesday.

Social Studies - Today we continued to analyze the Crusades through a student-created assessment.

HW - The Crusades were ultimately unsuccessful for the Christians. However, through defeat, the Christians learned a great deal from their Arab counterparts. Students: Please write about a lesson you have learned through defeat in your own life. 50 words or more needed.

Portfolio -